

Obituary

Born: Friday, July 8, 1960

Died: Wednesday, September 11, 2019

Gordon Leigh Vinopal, 59, of Warren, formerly of Clarendon, passed away on Wednesday, September 11, 2019, surrounded by his family. Gordon was born on July 8, 1960, in Warren, to James Morrison and the late Linda (Kervin) Morrison. Gordon was first and foremost a family man. In his younger days, his first love was his Harley. He loved nothing more than to hold the throttle wide open and took pride in the fact that his bike was the loudest bike in town. After his grandchildren were born, his life became totally about them. He became interested in their lives and all their activities. He was instrumental in all Sheffield sports and became involved in shaping the lives of young people. He loved helping out whenever and wherever he could. He rarely missed any sporting events. Sheffield sports will not be the same without him. In addition to his father, Gordon is survived by his loving wife, Bonnie Vinopal, whom he married on November 14, 1987, at the Clarendon United Methodist Church; his children, Jen Vinopal, of Welbank, Ali (Kasey Hardwick) Vinopal, of Sheffield, Linda Vinopal, of Warren, and Mike Vinopal, of Warren; his siblings, Candy Vinopal, of Youngsville, and Jim (Michelle Neal) Vinopal; his grandchildren, Jakob Vinopal, Evelyn Wagner, Noah Wagner, Dylan Hardwick, Gordon Vinopal, Kaiden Hardwick, Madilynn Morley, Max Morley, Jace Morley, Maddox Vinopal, and Quinten Vinopal; and his nieces and nephews. Karla, Melissa, Mandy, Mary, L.J., Tiffany, Michael, and Brandon. In addition to his mother, Gordon is preceded in death by his grandparents, Peg and Art Morrison, and Evelyn and Red Kervin; and his sister, Myra Vinopal. There are no public services at this time.

Service Summary

Funeral Service

Location: - Not available -