

Obituary

Born: Wednesday, January 4, 1950

Died: Monday, November 18, 2019

Craig Curtis Goodwin, 69, of Warren passed away on November 18, 2019 at home. The son of the late Curtis R. and Eva R. (Sallack) Goodwin, he was born on January 4, 1950, in Warren, PA. Craig was a 1967 graduate of Warren Area High School and of Thiel College with a B.A. in mathematics. He worked as a computer technician/programmer with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission in Harrisburg for 25 years. He had a fondness for the Warren area and returned there after his retirement from the PUC. Craig was a warm and friendly person who enjoyed visiting family and friends. He especially enjoyed his 50th year high school reunion in 2017 where he was able to reconnect with classmates. Craig enjoyed traveling within the United States as well as a trip to Switzerland which enabled him to visit his ancestor's village in the Swiss Alps. Craig's retirement hobbies included day trips and watching sports. He was an avid Buffalo Bills fan and attended many games. He had a great memory and could recall details of past events. Craig is survived by his brother, Mark L. (Linda) Goodwin, Johnstown PA; a nephew Jaysen M. (Christina) Goodwin, Falls Church VA; as well as several cousins. Craig will be greatly missed by family and friends. All prayers and warm thoughts of Craig will be appreciated. A private memorial service and internment will be held at the convenience of the family. Those wishing to make online condolences may do so by visiting, www.petersonblickfuneralhome.com.
